A record of the year 1884 as kept at Springfield, Ohlo, or Jonas Drury:

The year has been a fruitful one. All kinds of grain, corn, potatoes and vegetables have been abundant, and all kind of fruit has yielded abundantly, except peaches and cherries. And while our land has been free from epidemics, we have had a liberal share of tornadors, which have been very destructive to life and property.

THE COLORED SCHOOLS.

A Springfield Delegation Calls on the Gov ernor to Have Them Abolished-A Recommendation to be Made in the Annual

A committee of prominent colored men from Springfield, consisting of Messrs, James Buford, W. H. Dickson, W. S. Newberry and Graham Deuwell, called upon Gov. Headly yesterday and presented him a petition on behalf of the Springfield colored people, to recommend, in his annual message to the Legislature the repeal of section 4008, R. S., which clothes boards of education with the power to create separate school districts and erect separate school-houses for colored children. The colored people of the State consider themselves imposed upon where these separate schools are established, the greatest trouble being in the southern part of the State, and want the law repealed. In Springfield, they say, there is a separate school house, having a seating capacity of about 400, but compelled to accommodate 1,006 pupils, that number being enrolled. There are but nine teachers in the building, and in one room sione 125 pupils are enrolled. The building is not centrally located, while the children are compelled in some case to walk two miles to school, passing three school houses on the way. Mr. Newberry, of the committee, has an 8-year-old son who was not strong and who had to walk theire squares to school, although a shool building are eithered limit engage the except from his house. At last Mr. Newbery succeeded, by obtaining a physician's certificate of his son's these six cases a loss of $1,000 and uprd, | board has been petitioned gain and again to abolish the colored school or to erect another building, but all to no avil. Last year a bill to repeal the section providing for separate schools was introduced into the Legislature, but was deteated by the Democratic House. Governor Hoslly yesterday expressed himself as in sympathy with the colored people, and said he would recommend in his message the repeal of the obnoxious
